I don't normally 'do' charity, unless its animal charities as I think they get the roughest deal. However this year I am growing a moustache for Movember. I have decided to put down my razor for one month (November) and help raise awareness and funds for mens health, specifically prostate cancer.

What many people don't appreciate is that one man dies every hour of prostate cancer in the UK, more than 35,000 men will be diagnosed this year and that prostate cancer is the most common cancer in men in the UK. Facts like these have convinced me I should get involved and I am hoping that you will support me.

To donate to my Mo, you can either:

Click this link <http://uk.movember.com/mospace/26347/> and donate online using your credit card, debit card or PayPal account
Write a cheque payable to 'The Prostate Cancer Charity - Movember', referencing my Registration Number 26347 and mailing it to: Movember - The Prostate Cancer Charity, First Floor, Cambridge House, Cambridge Grove, London, W6 0LE.

Movember is now in its third year here in the UK and, to date, has achieved some pretty amazing results by working alongside The Prostate Cancer Charity. Check out further details at: <http://uk.movemberfoundation.com/research-and-programs> .
